BROMLEY & CO.'S YOUNG HORSES.

Several critics who have inspected the Bromley & Co. horses now in Julius Bauer's charge, near Lexington, Ky., have all been favorably impressed by a number of the younger division, and if their views are correct it may be that this enterprising Chicago firm is at last to have something like the measure of success their liberal expenditures richly entitle them to reap. One observer says in a recent letter to an eastern newspaper:

"The three-year-olds Heliobas, by Farandole—Borden Lass; Rose o'Lee, by Duke of Montrose—Sis o'Lee; La Cheviot, by Cheviot—Elsie S., and Composer, by Wagner—Miss Barnes should make a useful lot. The two fillies are small, but both are racy looking, especially La Cheviot, which last year showed enough speed to warrant the belief that she can win in the right company. Heliobas and Composer are fine big colts. The latter is a compact, powerfully built youngster, and will not need to improve a great deal to keep a good many of the three-year-olds busy in the short races at least. Heliobas has the make and build of a good horse. He has range and substance, and if he trains on well may have something to say in the decision of the three-year-old stakes. He was a better horse than Greatland last spring.

"The two-year-olds are a good, serviceable, all around lot. Three or four of them have enough quality to win stakes. The bay by Hanover out of Ursuline Nun, by Longfellow, is, to my notion, one of the very best two-year-olds I have seen here. He is lengthy, well balanced and well built, has a splendid quarter and hind leg, short back, good fore back and level on top with a breezy head and neck. He stands and acts and looks much like Hamburg. Colonel Young sold his dam in foal to Hanover to Mr. Appleby for $600, and at Mr. Appleby's sale Bromley & Co. bought the colt for $9,500. I doubt if that sum would buy him now. Of course the choosing of racehorses on points is mighty uncertain even with the shrewdest of judges. If a man could do that unflinchingly, he would not need to work. At the same time they have got to show quality before they lower records; and if there is anything in quality, this colt is a good one sure.

The brown Hanover colt out of Flying Witch is another youngster with lots of finish and quality. This is a little big horse, one of the sort that you like better the more you look at him; compact, stout and yet standing over plenty of ground. He is well muscled, free from lumber, and ought to come early to hand. He is a handy type and may prove a shifty fellow in some of the stakes. The chestnut colt by Hanover out of Miss Baden is small, but all horse. He is a good counterpart of Handball.

Of the others the big colt by Order—Hattie B., dam of Deceiver; chestnut colt, by Albert—Hoodoo, brother to Jinks, and the chestnut by Sir Dixon—Mattie Amelia, all impressed me very favorably. The three are much of a type, rangy, but short-backed, good legs, quarters and shoulders, and powerfully built. One could not select very many of this sort without getting a racer. The Sir Dixon is especially rugged, and if he turns out to be a good one, he will certainly stand a lot of campaigning. Another colt, full brother to Gotham, a bay, is a big, long, low, lengthy fellow. He will not train early, but, with waiting on, may make a good racehorse.

There is one especially good looking filly in the lot. She is a bay by Iroquois—Yorkville Belle. She is a tremendous big mare now, with great strength and powerful development all over. She is a trifle long in the back, but still so well muscled and stoutly built that she ought to handle weight.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

As to certain features and possibilities of the summer meeting at Latonia a dispatch from New Orleans to a Cincinnati newspaper of yesterday says: "Any and all reputable bookmakers who may so desire will be permitted to cut in at the coming Latonia meeting. There has been a disposition in some quarters to question the sincerity of the Latonia people in the announcement made some time ago that there is to be a return to the old-time opening at the Kenton County track next spring, but Colonel Applegate tonight declared himself as above. The ring will not only be open, but furthermore, an inducement will be held out to bookmakers to hang up their slates at the Kenton County track. The Latonia management have decided to make the fee for booking at their meeting $75 a day, instead of the customary $100. Colonel Applegate says that several eastern bookmakers have given assurance that they will come to Latonia, and he professes to be sanguine that under the new order of things a sufficient number of books will be had to make the return to an open ring a success. Officials for the coming meeting have not yet been selected, but in all probability Morgan Chinn, whose work while he was substituting for Chinn senior last season was quite satisfactory, will be offered the position of starter.

"There is more than a remote possibility that Captain Rees will be offered the chief place in the judge's stand. It is, in any event, a certainty, that Colonel Applegate would like to have the former presiding judge at Oakley in the stand, and while nothing has been stated officially to that effect it is reasonably certain that he can have the position if he cares for it."

Roscoe Troxler, who has developed into a most promising lightweight, is in great demand. L. V. Bell, for whom J. J. Marklein is training, J. J. McCafferty, "Pittsburg Phil" and F. V. Alexandre are all desirous of securing him. The boy will adhere to his determination not to sign a contract until he goes east, where he will ride the coming season.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Tinkler came away without an effort in the last sixteenth and finished strong. The next four were driving to the limit. Hero Jr. stopped to nothing after going three furlongs. Kalitan would have won under a stronger ride. He was in the lumpy going all the way. Gath had speed but stopped. The going was against him. Yo No Se ran a smart race and finished strong with poor handling.
Scratched—Little Sallie, 95. Volandies, 101.

Winner—B. g. by Morello—Prize.
Start fair. Won easily. There was little action behind. Credo was best and is a horse of promise. He was lucky. Tab him for better things. Eakins ran above the mark. He is fast but a coward. Anchored closed ground after getting off in a tangle. Judge Wofford made up a lot of ground in the stretch. His finish was impressive. Rose Maid finished strong. The Miller was used a lot to get up and quit in the final furlong. Throw out The Wooper's race. It was out of line.

Scratched—Sidelong, 97; Charmante, 102; Strombolita, 102; El Salado, 114; Socialist, 116; Ballister, 116; The Dipper, 116.
Credo, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Eakins, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Anchored, show, 2 to 1. The Miller, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h. by Falsetto—Cinderella.
Start fair. Won in a drive. Drive of four for third place. Ferrier is good nowadays. Has almost got to his old form. Midlight ran an honest race and was lucky. She weakened at the end under a bad ride. Opponent is fit and closed ground resolutely at the end. Watch him. Horatio was overweighted. He is good but not any too reliable. Primrose ran a good race. Tab him. Don't Skip Me had bad luck and an easy race. Watch. Marmion is not nearly himself.

Scratched—Scintillate, 98; Bonnie Ione, 100; Wyoming, 103; Judge Stouffer, 103; Lady Britan-

Winner—Br. h. by Longfellow—Jennie Treacy.
Start good. Won quite easily; second in a hard drive. Spreckels was much the best and came away from the others in the stretch without pressure. Dr. Bernays was cut off on the first turn but got through and ran his race, finishing strong. Mistral II showed improvement and is rounding into form. He ran fast through the stretch. Our Johnny ran a good race and is also in the improving list. Plan stopped in the stretch. Cromwell ran a very bad race. Throw it out. Bernardillo showed speed for part of the route then collapsed suddenly.

Scratched—Stamina, 92; Dolore, 100; Twinkle Twink, 100; Initiator, 100; Dunpraise, 102; Lode

Winner—Ch. h. by Midlothian—Starlight.
Start good. Won in a hard drive. Lode Star was fittest, lucky and perfectly ridden. The Bachelor was best but was sadly managed. He closed strong. Formella ran about her race. She had a lot of speed but hung at the end. Perseus was not near fit and the rest were outclassed.

Lode Star, place, 2 to 5. Formella, show, evens.

Winner—B. g. by Buckra—Wewa.
Start bad. Won pulling up. Buckwa beat the gate and was never approached. He outclassed the field anyhow and could have won further away. Highland Ball was nearly left at the post and ran a remarkable race. Hohenzollern has been coughing and is not himself temporarily. Libertine ran a bad race. He is very uncertain and not to be depended upon.

Scratched—Novia, 90.
Overweights—Highland Ball, 2 pounds; Hohenzollern, 2.

Winner—B. c. by Maxim—Daniella.
Start good. Won without an effort. Maxello outclassed his opponents and was never extended. He is very good and can beat much better horses. Una Colorado ran a good honest race closing stoutly. Naranja showed some speed but does not amount to much. It was too short for Joe Musel. He is a plodder and a stayer. Meadow Lark was nearly left at the post and had but little chance from the start.

Maxello, place, 1 to 2. Una Colorado, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Naranja, show, 3 to 5.
